

JESUS IN ALL THE SCRIPTURES

Luke 24.13-35

THE WHOLE BIBLE POINTS TO JESUS

Luke 24.13-27 // Genesis 3.14, 15

From the very beginning, man has turned from God. But God, even from Genesis, promised to make a way for salvation and forgiveness. The entire bible is the redemptive story of mankind that God put forward to display His glory. Every page somehow points to our need for a Savior, and God's faithfulness towards unfaithful enemies.

Despite man's continual rebellion, God would remain patient; He would stay true to His promise that He would send a Rescuer to us in order to save us.

ISAIAH 53

God did, however, prepare the way for us through His Word. Through many prophecies given to show us what the Messiah would look like and do, He prepared us to know what to look for.

Isaiah 53 is the fourth "Servant Song" in Isaiah, which depicts the coming Messiah as God's Servant. Historically, even in ancient Jewish commentaries, it was considered to be about the Messiah. But after the life and death of Christ, it made many Jewish scholars uncomfortable, and other meanings were debated. At one point, it was taken (among other chapters of the OT) out of the yearly synagogue reading, and so throughout much of Jewish history, Isaiah 53 was very unknown.

SO HOW WILL WE KNOW?

The Jews missed the Messiah, despite the many prophecies, because they did not seek Him by faith, but rather sought God in their own good works and sought a God that they wanted.

If you believe what you like in the bible, and reject what you don't like, it is not the bible you believe, but yourself.

-Augustine

Even though we have so much at our fingertips concerning the Gospel, we could also fall into the trap of "missing" the Messiah. Though we know Him by name and call Him our Lord,

If we are looking to Him to be our Personal Assistant, rather than our King, we will be surprised to only know Him as our Judge.

Luke 24.28-35

NOTES:

This Week's Scripture to Memorize:

John 3:16-17

¹⁶"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. ¹⁷For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him.

ARE YOU NEW HERE?

WELCOME TO LIFE MISSION!

We'd love for you to fill out a Connection Card so we can welcome you and answer any questions you may have. You can drop it in the offering basket during the service or take it to one of our teammates at the Connection Booth outside. Feel free to grab some coffee and snacks in the courtyard and hang out. We hope you'll join us next Sunday and consider making us your church family.

WHAT ABOUT THE KIDS?

Our childrens' ministry, which we call Kids on Mission, has classes for newborns - 5th grade. We have a great team of volunteers who have all been screened with background checks for extra security. Each week your child will get to worship with their class, followed by an age-appropriate lesson that points them towards Jesus and helps root them in the Word of God.

Visit our website to read more about the vision of Kids on Mission and a walkthrough of our curriculum. If you have any questions, email Katie McGinty at katie@lifemission.tv

JUNIOR HIGH & HIGH SCHOOL

Our 6th - 8th graders begin each Sunday by worshipping with the adults and then head to their classroom with their teacher and classmates for the rest of service. Visit our website to read more about our junior high ministry and a walkthrough of our curriculum.

Our 9th-12th graders stay in the service with the adults because we believe that it is crucial for them to not "graduate the faith" when they graduate high school. Our mid-week High School Ministry meets once a month here at Classical Academy, in the Study Hall. Email Casey Barnes at casey@lifemission.tv for info about meeting dates/times or questions about our student ministries.

COMMUNITY GROUP HOMEWORK

Before your group starts, is there anyone who can share the Memory Verse?

Read Luke 24.13-35. What stands out to you in this passage, and what stuck out to you most from the sermon on Sunday? _____

How does knowing that the whole bible ultimately points to Jesus change the way that you approach reading the Word? What does this tell you about God's design and purpose for His Word? _____

Preaching the Gospel to Yourself

How does the truth from this text and sermon point you back to Christ? What particular truth can help keep you focused on the Gospel? _____

What is a real life and current situation you are in that this truth can be applied to, and how? _____

Repent and Confess

What do you see in this truth that exposes a particular sin or behavior? How have you been "missing the Messiah" in your day to day life? _____

Ask for Provision

In light of this truth, what do you need to ask for from the Lord? What fruit of the Spirit are you needing? _____

Your Life Mission

In the video, we saw examples of people who have not quite heard enough about who this Savior is. Before you close the group with prayer, what opportunities are coming up that you could use prayer for as it pertains to sharing your faith or intentionally engaging with others with a Gospel focus and goal? _____

End the evening in a time of prayer, praying through the theme of the night using the P.R.A.Y. model with your group. Make sure to end your time of prayer Yielding with Thanksgiving for God's sovereignty and plan for your life.
